

Amonra Dog Training Club

&

Are pleased to invite You at their two days agility Show in the Czech Republic on the 18th and 19th of September 2010.

The Show will take place at the Amonra Dog Training
Centre in Cebin: 15 kms from the town of Brno.

On saturday the following classes will be held: Agility Open, Agility
1, 2, 3 and Jumping Open.

On sunday we will start with a Jumping Open, followed by Agility 1, 2, 3 classes.

The Show will be closed by the Agility Final which will award the Trophy of KING OF CEBIN.

To the Final you can qualify through all the runs on both saturday and sunday.

The appointed judge for both days is Mr Josep Boix from Spain, judge of great international experience (WC 2005)
and multiple times WC starter.

Restaurant on the place. Toilets and showers available.
Parking for caravans and camping cars close to the ring.
Possibility of sleeping in tents too.
(2 euros per person/night with free use of toilets and showers).

The entry fee for both days is of 30 euros for the first dog 25 euros for the next dogs of the same handler.
Payment in cash directly on the place.

No entries for just one day.

At registration desk there will be a present for every starter.

The entries must be sent by e-mail to c_magnoli@hotmail.com no later than 13th of september.

All the informations could be found on www.dogsandfun.com.

We hope You will join us for two days of great agility and fun.

Tom Halačka

Picture of the Show site